JOINT RESOLUTION relating to the preservation and publication of portions of the early state and provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

That His Excellency the Governor be hereby authorized and empowered, with the advice and consent of the Council, to employ some suitable person—and fix his compensation, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated—to collect, arrange, transcribe, and superintend the publication of such portions of the early state and provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire as the Governor may deem proper; and that eight hundred copies of each volume of the same be printed by the state printer, and distributed as follows: namely, one copy to each city and town in the state, one copy to such of the public libraries in the state as the Governor may designate, fifty copies to the New Hampshire Historical Society, and the remainder placed in the custody of the State Librarian, who is hereby authorized to exchange the same for similar publications by other states.

Approved August 4, 1881.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

To whom it may concern:

This writing witnesseth that I, John McLane, Governor, in accordance with the provisions of the Joint Resolution relating to the preservation and publication of portions of the early provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire, approved August 4, 1881, and by virtue of the authority thereof do hereby authorize Albert S. Batchellor, as Editor of State Papers, and on behalf of the state, to collect, arrange, transcribe, and superintend the publication of the original articles of agreement entered into and subscribed by citizens of New Hampshire in the several towns, by the signatures to which those who espoused the cause of independence, and those who refused to do so, are indicated and distinguished, these papers being known as the Association Test. The material above described shall all be included in a single volume, which shall be in construction and appearance, as nearly as may be, uniform with volume 29 of the State Papers series.

There shall be included in said work such explanatory notes, citations, tables of contents, indexes, introductory statements, and supplemental papers, to be made a part of the volume, as may be deemed useful and appropriate.

This I deem proper to be done, and these instructions are given in accordance with the authority vested in me, as Governor, by the provisions of the joint resolution relating to the preservation and publication of portions of the state and provincial records and other state papers of New Hampshire, approved August 4, 1881.

Given under my hand, in triplicate, at Concord, this 21st day of December, 1906.

JOHN McLANE.

INTRODUCTION

The original documents which constitute the basis of treatises on the relations of New Hampshire to the American Revolution have never been systematically and comprehensively assembled. It is not possible to set bounds to such a collection. It necessarily extends back into a comparatively remote antiquity, and collaterally into the archives of other states, of the Federal government, and of other nations, and into the accumulations of manuscripts and records in a large and constantly increasing number of private, municipal, and educational libraries. Much has been accomplished in recent years in the organization, cataloguing, and description of these collections. This state has published extensive installments of its archives and related documents, in which the facts that should be sought for a narrative of the part performed by its people in this important epoch are made apparent.

In this connection an outline of what has been published is not inappropriate.

The journals of the five Revolutionary conventions, in the contemporary records described as "Congresses," appear in volume 7 of the State Papers series. Early in 1776 the fifth Provincial Congress reported and adopted a state constitution, the first promulgated by any American colony in the Revolutionary period, and on that as a basis caused a government to be organized and established. 8 N. H. State Papers, 2; Journal of the Continental Congress, 1775, p. 319. It was the expectation that this government would be temporary. Such was the result, although an attempt to adopt a more permanent form of constitution in 1778 was a conspicuous failure. Manual of the Constitution of New Hampshire, p. 71. The constitution of 1776 served its purpose until that of 1784 was adopted and put into operation. In this important period were preserved the journals of the Council, which corresponded to the present Senate, the House of Representatives, and the Committee of Safety, which exercised extensive legislative and executive powers when the legislature was not in session. The journals of the Council and the House of Representatives from 1774 to 1784 appear in the printed volume in the form of abstracts which show a diminishing degree of fulness in transcription to the end of the period named.

It is due to the department which had in charge this work to state that this system of abstracts in place of a complete presentation of the records, according to the original purpose of the editor, was the result of the compulsory application of false ideas of economy in the prosecution of this work. It is estimated that six volumes of ordinary size would have presented the journals in full, and would have thus rendered all that is now buried in manuscript volumes imperfectly indexed conveniently accessible for general investigation. This estimate includes, of course, the journal of the Committee of Safety as an essential feature. This record has been printed in volume 7 of the Collections of the New Hampshire Historical Society, but it is believed that eventually it will find place in the State Papers series, which will continue the publication in full of the journals from 1754 to 1784, heretofore printed in abstract only.

The controversy over the right of jurisdiction, which involved Vermont as the principal, and New Hampshire and New York as interested parties, was to New Hampshire a constant source of danger and distraction from the duty of performing a full part in the contest with Great Britain. A part of the population in the counties bordering on the Connecticut river held aloof from the New Hampshire Revolutionary government, and refused to recognize it as lawful, from the time of the adoption of the constitution of 1776 to the determination of the controversy by the intervention of Washington in January, 1782. 10 N. H. State Papers, 462. At times the movement was towards an independent state, which was to include territory on both sides of the river. At other times it tended towards a union of a part of Vermont with New Hampshire, or the annexation of a considerable part of this state to Vermont. The issue was a troublesome one in Congress, where Vermont was at a considerable disadvantage in having no representation. This condition of affairs was the occasion for the celebrated Haldimand correspondence, from which it is a reasonable inference that certain popular leaders in Vermont had by astute diplomacy made it appear to Governor Haldimand that it might not be for the future interests of Great Britain for him to allow destructive British warfare in the territory of Vermont. 2 Coll. Vt. Hist. Soc. The documents relating to the conflicting claims of jurisdiction over the region formerly known as the New Hampshire Grants are somewhat voluminous, and constitute part of the English and Canadian archives, as well as those of New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Vermont. The first New Hampshire collection of the documents relating to this subject which could be regarded as comprehensive was edited by Dr. Bouton, and published in volume 10 of this series. In volume 26 the charters of townships and grants of lands to individuals by Governor Benning Wentworth, west of the Connecticut river, were printed in full, with appropriate notes. Four hundred copies were purchased and distributed by the state of Vermont. The late Hon. Hiram A. Huse, State Librarian of Vermont, coöperated with the editor of the volume in the preparation of the material. The controversies which had their origin in the events outlined in the editor's preface to volume 26 culminated in the period of the American Revolution, and projected upon that struggle a perplexing and dangerous complication. Its historical importance has been made more apparent by the modern presentation of the documents relating to it in a systematic and accessible form. State publications, however, have failed to reach what might constitute a very extensive supplement to the printed archives relating to the Vermont controversy.

The state of New Hampshire, in volumes 14, 15, 16, and 17 of the State Papers series, presented the rolls of the soldiers of the Revolution in a form which was governed as nearly as possible by the rule of exact reproduction. It was wisely decided that the peculiarities of the original record should not be disregarded. The collection, arrangement and editorial labor required for the publication of these documents was committed to the late Hon. Isaac W. Hammond, Editor of State Papers and Deputy Secretary of State. What he accomplished in this undertaking has met in a most satisfactory degree the exacting tests of time and use. Moreover, it will be observed that Mr. Hammond's collection was very nearly exhaustive of the available documentary material. In 1791 a committee of the legislature, of which Jeremiah Smith was chairman, presented a report on the organizations that were engaged in the military service for New Hampshire in the period of the war for independence. 9 N. H. Hist. Soc. Coll., 415. A file of original New Hampshire Revolutionary rolls exists in the pension department at Washington, in an excellent state of preservation, except that two volumes are missing. No systematic investigation has yet been made to discover the personnel of New Hampshire service in the Continental Army. A notable deficiency exists in the absence of rolls of the thirty-one companies that were sent from New Hampshire in 1775 for the reinforcement of Washington's army at the siege of Boston on the occasion of the inopportune withdrawal of the Connecticut contingent. A list of the officers of these companies has been preserved, and this indicates approximately the places from which they were drawn. A few rolls, mainly of Continental service, have come to light since the publication of Mr. Hammond's volumes, and are included in this collection.

It has been said that at the time of the Royalton raid of 1780 there were more New Hampshire men under arms than at any other period of the war. The rolls of companies, and almost all the other evidence of service of the organizations responding to this alarm, have disappeared. New Hampshire men were engaged in Gen. Jacob Bailey's Vermont brigade in 1777, and they were in the Massachusetts service in great numbers. Many of the latter are unquestionably identified. Research actuated and stimulated in recent years by various patriotic hereditary societies has doubtless added largely to the sum of exact knowledge of the men of the Revolution as members of family groups. The material that will be finally available for the history of New Hampshire in that period, a work yet to be written, is constantly, though slowly, coming into view, and is given appropriate place in the published archives of the state. Stevens's Facsimiles of Manuscripts in European Archives Relating to America, 1773-1783, are an invaluable contribution to the documentary literature which is becoming accessible in this country. It is to be regretted that New Hampshire historians of the time of the Revolution failed to appreciate the importance of their own view of the events of that great conflict, and of satisfactory character sketches of the principal actors. Dr. Belknap, whose history of New Hampshire will always rightly hold the highest place in literature of its class, condenses his narrative of events leading to actual hostilities into two chapters, thirty-two pages, while his story of the conflict itself occupies a single chapter of twenty pages. The next contribution to the documentary history of this period will necessitate a comprehensive examination of the archives of England, France, Germany, and the Canadian provinces. It is not to be expected that such an enterprise will ever be prosecuted by private effort and expenditure. In its importance, its character, and its scope it is manifestly governmental.

It is a fact too significant to be overlooked that in the Revolutionary movement in New Hampshire the espousal of a common cause was an individual affair, and the citizen, in his own person, constantly appears in the records as the declarant of his sentiments and intentions; and those who exercised the functions of leadership were thus enabled to stand upon a foundation of unmistakable support and coöperation on the part of the people. It did not appear to be admissible, from either the standpoint of the leaders or that of their followers, that there should be any possibility of misunderstanding as to the attitude, not only of the state and the town, but of each citizen in his individual capacity. Hence, if retaliation on the mother country was contemplated by refusal to purchase her exportations to America, the assent of the men of every town and parish was obtained over their individual signatures. New Hampshire's Five Provincial Congresses, by Joseph B. Walker, pp. 9, 10; The New Hampshire Covenant of 1774, by Joseph B. Walker. The actual identification of the people of the state as individuals and as a body politic was a subject of vital interest, and presaged consequences which could not be foreseen or predicted. Again the men upon whom devolved the solemn duty of making effectual their declared political purposes were asked to announce their attitude, to espouse the cause of independence by subscribing to an instrument called the Association Test. One of these documents was provided for each town, and every male inhabitant of lawful age, except lunatics, idiots, and negroes, was given an opportunity to join in the compact. It was ordered that those who refused to sign were to be reported to the Assembly by name. A remarkable approach to unanimity marked the signing of this pledge throughout the state. The business of procuring signatures, and of reporting the names of those who refused to sign, was committed to the selectmen of each town. Either these papers were not circulated in all the towns, or, what is more probable, many of them were not duly forwarded to the Assembly and were afterwards lost, as not all the towns are represented in the returns now preserved in the archives. The total number of signers aggregates 8,567, and 781 refused to sign for various reasons. These papers are of extraordinary importance and value from every point of view. They are reprinted in this volume with scrupulous accuracy and completeness, and are carefully indexed.

The archives of this state relating to the period of the Revolution, as in other states, are susceptible of two divisions, though they are not absolutely separable and distinct. One of these divisions would include legislative proceedings, petitions, complaints, and explanations submitted to the General Court, court proceedings and files relating to that part of the population now described as Royalists. A few of these documents necessarily appear in the general publications relating to the Revolution. The great mass of this class of records has been disregarded, and they have thus become a particular section of the archives. Only one side is fully and fairly presented in print. The papers in the state's custody which relate exclusively to the Royalists are a counterpart of what appears in liberal measure in the publications of this department, and which may be regarded as anti-Tory literature. No index to the Royalist documents has been provided. The records are, of course, largely personal and have never been comprehensively treated for publication. The Revolutionary archives of the state and of the courts contain the data for an exposition of the charges against those who were apprehended and prosecuted as Tories, the statements of individual offenses, and the answers and explanations of the parties.

The British government provided for the relief of those Royalists who had suffered loss of property or other injury supposed to be worthy of compensation. A commission was empowered to investigate the general subject, and to ascertain and report as to those deserving of relief. Persons represented to be members of this class, and entitled to the benefits of parliamentary legislation, were permitted to file their claims and proofs in form and method somewhat similar to that now in use in the Bureau of Pensions of the United States.

Two of the commissioners, Col. Thomas Dundas and Mr. Jeremy Pemberton, were sent to America to conduct hearings and to receive and consider evidence. These commissioners sat in Halifax, St. John, Quebec, and Montreal, and their work extended over a period of four years, from 1785 to 1789. Their original rough notes, in thirty-five volumes, are now in the Library of Congress, and have been published in the report of the Ontario Bureau of Archives for 1904. Copies of all the completed records, reports, and documents of the entire commission, including both English and American hearings, were obtained some years ago by the New York Public Library, and are now accessible in that institution. These copies fill more than sixty folio volumes.

The New Hampshire State Library has secured from the English archives copies of all these papers that relate to the claimants from New Hampshire and Vermont. The documents that are now assembled in the archives and library of this state relating to those citizens who were suspected or accused of Royalist tendencies will afford sufficient material for a printed volume of the average size of those already published in the State Papers series. An impartial judgment of history may be rendered, although the evidence of one side is not presented, but this is a hazardous method of determining justice.

Otis G. Hammond, M. A., of the State Library, recently read a monograph on the Royalists of New Hampshire before the Social Science Club of Dartmouth College. This paper was exhaustive in research, and in all respects an admirable presentation of the subject. It is still unpublished, but will prove a singularly helpful and instructive treatment of an element in the early history of the state that has been too long neglected.

The Revolutionary rolls of Massachusetts have been treated on a different plan from that employed in New Hampshire. An alphabetical system was adopted, by which each soldier is given a separate paragraph, and all the essential items relating to his service follow his name. This results in an extensive biographical dictionary, and renders all the data concerning an individual immediately available, although the geographical clues afforded by the names as grouped in the original rolls are lost. This publication occupies seventeen quarto volumes. New Hampshire men in large numbers served in Massachusetts organizations, and many of them are identified by residence. A list has been compiled, and included in this volume, which contains the names of those who appear on the Massachusetts rolls as residents of the state of New Hampshire beyond the possibility of reasonable doubt. There is no question that other men of New Hampshire were engaged in the Massachusetts service, whose identity as such is not made apparent by a statement of residence, or who are, on the rolls, assigned to Massachusetts towns. In other instances the record is ambiguous by reason of the existence of towns of the same name in both states. The list in this volume is not extended to include such problematical cases. In default of a clear statement of residence in a New Hampshire town, the identification of New Hampshire men must be left to local historians, genealogists, and other special investigators.

The United States published in 1835, in three volumes, a list of all pensioners who were then, or had previously been on the rolls of that department, and in 1841 another list of pensioners then living. A copy of these rolls, so far as they relate to New Hampshire, is included in this volume. These tables not only serve as a useful supplement to, and verification of the original rolls, especially on points of location and identification of men for whom service is claimed, but they indicate the extent to which those who participated in the war for independence continued to be an element in the population of the state. The volumes in which these pension rolls were originally published by the government have become very scarce, and, when found, their usefulness is greatly impaired by the lack of indexes.

In the early years of the war operations proceeding in two directions made it incumbent upon this state to raise a large number of troops, one part going to participate in the invasion of Canada, and another part to join General Washington's army, engaged in the siege of Boston. There were, also, other, but less important calls to which the state responded. The regiment commanded by Colonel Bedel in 1775 was a part of the army then operating in Canada. The next year the second regiment of which Colonel Bedel had command also became a part of the Continental Army in Canada. The surrender at The Cedars May 21, 1776, where a contingent was in command of Major Isaac Butterfield, in the absence of Colonel Bedel and Lieutenant-Colonel Waite, involved only a part of the regiment. The list of men included in the surrender, and named as members of various companies in this regiment, is taken from Force's American Archives, Fifth Series, volume 1, p. 167. This short list indicates that a large part of the regiment was engaged elsewhere at the time of the surrender. Rolls of the regiment as enlisted and organized are printed in 14 N. H. State Papers, 285 et seq. A comparison of the surrender rolls with the enlistment rolls, to indicate those presumably engaged in other duty, affords a basis upon which another feature of the history of the regiment may be traced. Affair of the Cedars, and the Services of Col. Timothy Bedel in the War of the Revolution, by Edgar Aldrich, 3 Proc. N. H. Hist. Soc., 194.

The discovery of the rolls of a battalion commanded by Major John Brown, and recruited largely from this regiment, was recently made by Hon. Ezra S. Stearns, formerly Secretary of State. These documents are in the archives of New York, and prove an additional contribution by this state to the service of 1776. They are printed in full in this volume for the first time.

The archives of the province and state of New Hampshire in the past three hundred years have been subjected to many vicissitudes. In the earlier part of the province period they were transported from place to place with the recurring changes of political jurisdiction; they were scattered and mutilated; the residence of the custodian was burned; the capital was migratory before its final establishment at Concord. At the time of the reconstruction of the capitol in 1864 the archives were deposited for months in the unprotected galleries of the old building. Ancient documents, bearing rare autographs, were at the mercy of predatory collectors and other vandals. It is possible that a partial explanation is here found for the occasional appearance of records and papers in private possession, which originally had place in the official custody of the state. By the labors of a lifetime the late Peter Force assembled a great collection of historical manuscripts, many of which were published in his American Archives. His accumulations were finally purchased by the Federal government. Many documents of his collection, published and unpublished, might advantageously be included hereafter in the volumes to be issued by this department. The value of these papers may be indicated by the one published herewith.

The remainder of the text of this volume is occupied by two groups of Continental Army rolls of New Hampshire men which have not hitherto been printed, as they have come to light since the publication of Mr. Hammond's four Revolutionary volumes. One group is the property of the New Hampshire Historical Society, and the other of the Frye brothers of Wilton, N. H.

The exhaustive index which has been prepared by Mr. Otis G. Hammond reveals the name of every person and place mentioned in the text of the book, and will render a very large amount of information relating to the political and military history of the province and state easily accessible. It is due to Mr. Hammond, the Assistant Editor of State Papers, to state that he is entitled to credit for the collection, arrangement, and presentation of this material in its present form in this volume, in accordance with plans in which he and the editor have entirely concurred.

It is deemed advisable at this point to call special attention to the state publications which are designed to serve as indexes and guides to the extensive manuscript collections of the state. Without attempting to describe in detail what these archives are, it may be stated that the records of the Governor and Council from 1631 to 1784, as an executive department, are preserved and arranged in eight manuscript volumes, and have been printed as far as 1775 in this series. These Council records are, however, fragmentary and incomplete at intervals, which may be consistent with the theory that they are but the rough notes of the recording officer, and that the extended records were removed from the country, or lost by accident or official neglect. It has also been suggested that these notes never were elaborated into a full record. The index to these journals published by the state in 1896 is a very helpful compilation.

The journals of the House of Representatives, sometimes termed the Assembly, are extant, with an occasional hiatus, from 1711, and a record for the year 1699 is also preserved. This material, from 1711 to 1784, is the subject of another index published by the state in two volumes. This journal, with the index, is a valuable supplement to the information accessible in the printed journals, as the complete presentation of these records in the State Papers series ends with 1754, after which Dr. Bouton adopted a system of abstracts.

No index to the journals of the Council and Assembly, as a legislative body corresponding to the Senate as established under the present constitution, has ever been compiled. These records are not complete, but are approximately so from 1692 to 1784. If indexed in a systematic and exhaustive manner, with special reference to an exposition of all the subjects of legislation, whether adopted, rejected, or laid aside, and with a critical analysis of the discussion of the affairs of government constantly recurring in the messages of the Governors and the replies of the assembly, much historical material would be uncovered.

An index to the laws of the province and state from 1679 to 1883 has been compiled on the basis of the manuscript volumes. It is a reasonable prediction that all the statutes will eventually be reproduced in printed form, with adequate notes and indexes.

The student may also find help in Fry's New Hampshire as a Royal Province, chapter 7, and Historical and Biographical Notes on the Military Annals of New Hampshire, by A. S. Batchellor, pamphlet, 1898, reprinted from History of the Seventeenth Regiment, N. H. Vols.

It is a fact of common knowledge that the English archives are rich in records of colonial government relating to all the American possessions of the Crown prior to 1775. These documents include a vast amount of material which relates especially to New Hampshire. Copies have been made for this state of a part of these documents in the custody of the home government, affording sufficient material for two volumes of the ordinary size of this series. It is estimated that those not already transcribed would fill three more volumes. These papers in the English archives relating to New Hampshire were the subject of a descriptive calendar made under the auspices of the state and the New Hampshire Historical Society in coöperation, and published in volume 23 of this series and in volume 10 of the Collections of the society in 1893. The work of compilation was done under the supervision of the late B. F. Stevens of London, the distinguished archivist and antiquarian. The most extensive body of transcripts of documents in the English archives relating to the American colonies is owned by the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, and is now accessible in the library of that institution at Philadelphia. The series of Calendars of State Papers, America and West Indies series, published by the English government, now numbering thirteen volumes, and extending to the beginning of the eighteenth century, is necessarily rich in material relating to New Hampshire. These books are to be found in the State Library, and their use is facilitated by the descriptive calendar before mentioned as constituting volume 23 of the publications of this office.

To the Honourable the Council and House of Representatives for the Colony of New Hampshire To be Conven'd at Exeter in S^d Colony on wednesday the 5th Instant—

Pursueant to the within precept; we have taken pains to Know the Minds of the Inhabitants of the Town of Bedford, with Respect to the within Obligation, and find None unwilling to Sign the Same Except the Revernd John Houston, who Declines Signing the Said obligation, for the following Reasons, Viz

firstly Because he did not apprehend that the Hon^{ble} Committee meant that ministers Should Take up arms as Being inconsistant with their Ministerial Charge

2^{ndly} Because he was already Confin'd to the County of Hillsborough therefore he thinks he Ought to be Set at liberty before he Should Sign the S^d obligation

3^{rdly} Because there is three men Belonging to his Family already Inlisted in the Continental army

To the Honourable Com^{it}tee of Safety or general Assembly of the Colony of Newhampshire—

As Soon as ever we reciev^d your Directions, requesting us to desire all the Males in this Town to Sign to a Declaration (Lunaticks &c excepted) In Obedience thereto we Immediately proceeded to give publick Notice of your Intentions, and otherwise as we Thought would have the Most Effectual Tendency to have put into Execution, in order that we might make a Return by our Representative, but having So Short a Time for to accomplish the Matter in So great a Town, and being unwilling to omit anything relating to our Duty and which might be for the Benefit of the Whole, we calmly deliberated on the Matter, asked y^e Advice of our Representative and others of Sense and Steadiness and as we were not limited to a certain Time to make a Return, we purpuse to make one as Soon as it may be done with Conveniency So rest your Humble Serv^{ts}

To the Honble Provencil Congress these do Certify the Reason Why We the Subscribers do not Sine the Reselutions of the Congress in taking Up Armes We do not Belive that it is the Will of God to take Away the Lives of our fellowerators not that We Come Out Against the Congress or the Amarican Liberties but When Ever
 We are Convinct to the Contory We are Redy to joine our Amarican Briethen to Defend by Armes Against the Hostile Attempts of the

the Following Persons Refuse to Sign Any Association to Defend America by armes against the Hostile Attempts of Britain

To the general Assembly or Committee of Safety for New hamshire—

We produced to the Inhabitants of this Town in Town Meeting the Paper proposed by the Committee of Safety to be Sign^d by the Inhabitants of this Colony. Few, if any of the Inhabitants were willing to engage, & promis as there proposed, to oppose by Arms to the utmost of their power the hostile Attempts of y^e British Fleets & Armies — As this seem'd to the Inhabitants plainly to imply Something far more than any common Enlistment into the Service, ever engaging as Soldiers directly & during the Continuance of the war, as well as exerting ouer selves faithfully when engaged; this at least, being within the Compass of our power. But it did not appear to the Inhabitants prudent or Necessary for any, or in any Degree lawfull for all thus to engage. The Town directly adopted the Form of Association Sign'd on this paper which they & we hope expresses all Required by the general Congress.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MEN ON THE
MASSACHUSETTS REVOLUTIONARY

NEW HAMPSHIRE MEN ON THE MASSACHUSETTS REVOLUTIONARY WAR ROLLS.

The following table of residents of the state of New Hampshire who served in Massachusetts organizations in the Revolutionary war has been compiled from the official publication of the Massachusetts Revolutionary war rolls, issued by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, with the exception of those names which will be included in volume 17, the concluding volume of the series, which is not yet in print. The names credited to this volume were taken from the manuscript cards in the archives of the office.

This list cannot be complete, and is not published as such. It includes only those who are positively identified on the rolls, by residences given, as men of New Hampshire towns. All doubtful cases have been omitted. In the seventeen large volumes comprising the printed Revolutionary records of Massachusetts there are many thousands of names to which no residence is given. It is, without doubt, a fact that some of these were New Hampshire men, but there is no way of identifying them. Another cause of uncertainty is the duplication of the names of towns in the two states. In the published Massachusetts rolls there are comparatively few cases of names of towns outside of Massachusetts in which the name of the state is indicated. It may be said that the original rolls failed on this point, and that in the print the original was followed with scrupulous care. Whatever geographical information might have been derived from a roll in its entirety, by the known residences of the officers, or by the aggregation of names peculiar to a certain locality, is, of course, lost in the alphabetical arrangement adopted in the publication of these rolls. It has, therefore, been necessary to omit from this abstract, as doubtful, many names credited to towns which appear in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Salem, Deerfield, Dunstable, Marlborough, and Amherst are examples, and there are many more. All names in this doubtful class have been omitted unless proved by other evidence to be of New Hampshire.

A classification of these men by rank and duty is of interest.

MAJOR JOHN BROWN'S DETACHMENT.

GREEN MOUNTAIN BOYS.

[The regiment commanded by Colonel Timothy Bedel in 1775 was the outgrowth of a timid beginning. Having raised three regiments to serve in the siege of Boston, the provincial congress in May, 1775, ordered that a company not exceeding sixty men be enlisted in Grafton county for the defense of the northern frontier of New Hampshire. Eight days later a second company was authorized, and soon a regiment was raised and placed under the command of Colonel Bedel.

Mindful of the sad experience of the earlier wars and the incursions of Indians from Canada, and listening to the appeals of Ethan Allen, John Brown, Timothy Bedel, and other brave and impetuous men worthy of mention, the New England colonies, in the summer of 1775, ordered an invasion of Canada. It was an heroic measure, and the story of this expedition is one of the most thrilling and interesting chapters of the Revolution. Of the many brave men engaged in this exploit, one of the most heroic and daring was Major John Brown,* a graduate of Yale, and a brilliant young lawyer of Pittsfield, Massachusetts. The term of enlistment of the regiment of which he was a major expired December 31, 1775. At his request he was ordered to recruit a battalion from the men whose term of enlistment was expiring, of which he was given the command. He enlisted a number of New Hampshire men from Colonel Bedel's regiment, who remained in the service until May, 1776, when the American army in Canada was withdrawn.

For some incomprehensible reason the rolls of the four companies recruited and commanded by Major Brown have strayed to Albany and into the state archives of New York. For the rolls of Colonel Bedel's regiment, 1775, see the printed New Hampshire Revolutionary * Hist. Pittsfield, Mass., vol. I, p. 181.

Rolls, volume I, page 159, and volume IV, page 14, being volumes XIV and XVII of the New Hampshire State Papers. Of this regiment fifty-three men reënlisted near Quebec in December and served under Major Brown.

From Capt. James Osgood's company twenty-two reënlisted :

Lieut. James Gould	Thomas Spring
Samuel Drew	Zephaniah Pattee
Samuel Wallace	Jonathan Dresser
William Abbott	Abiel Messer
Enos Bishop	Henry Sellingham
Nathaniel Eastman	Robert Barkley
Benjamin Heath	George Kentfield
John Lapish	Stephen Bethel
Philip Grapes	Moses Luttington
Leonard Harriman	Duncan McGregor
Ezekiel Stickney	Archibald Sterling

From the Colonel's company twenty-one reënlisted :

Lieut. Charles Nelson	Israel Olmstead
Thomas Piper	George Capee
Ira Hand	Robert Paul
John Waters	Isaac Stevens
Moody Freeman	Ward Thurston { Died Jan. 13, 1776
John Freeman	Jonathan Walker
John Sanborn	Joseph Libby
Jonathan McConnell	Robert Miller, Bradford, Vt.
David Erwin	Sylvanus Owen, Fairlee, Vt.
John Haseltine	Ezra Moore, Medford, Mass.
Timothy Curtis

From Capt. John Parker's company eleven reënlisted :

Lieut. Seth Wheeler	Jonathan Richardson
James Gibson	Elijah Blodgett
Ephraim Garvin	Oliver Hand
Moses Harriman	Samuel Sargent
Jedediah Jewett	John French
Moses Flood

Under date of February 17, 1776, five of these men were reported sick in hospital. They were Samuel Drew and Samuel Wallace of Plymouth, James Gibson of Goffstown, Ira Hand of Bath, and Joseph Libby of Haverhill. Benjamin Young Smith of Westmoreland served in Major Brown's battalion, but his name is not found in the rolls of Colonel Bedel's regiment.

A list of the officers and men in Major Brown's detachment was printed in "New York in the Revolution," second edition, pp. 61 and 62. Copies of the complete rolls of the four companies have been obtained from the office of the comptroller of the state of New York, and are here printed, probably for the first time.

In his letter of transmittal the comptroller says: "These muster rolls comprise all the original documents on file here in relation to the Green Mountain Boys, with the exception of a receipt of Reuben King for half pay as an invalid private. Names appearing in 'New York in the Revolution,' pages 61 and 62, and not found on these rolls, were obtained from miscellaneous papers filed with the Revolutionary records in this office, giving simply the name, corps, and rank, and from a list of men who served in this detachment, furnished by the Record and Pension Bureau, War Department, Washington, D. C."

In connection with the publication of the list of names in Major Brown's detachment in "New York in the Revolution," pp. 61, 62, the editor assumes that this battalion formed a part of the organization of hardy and intrepid rangers who became famous under the name of the Green Mountain Boys. He bases his conclusions on these facts, as stated in his prefatory note: "The fact that the Green Mountain Boys were at Quebec in 1776, that this detachment was also at Quebec in 1776, that two of the officers on these rolls, Captain and Commissary Elijah Babcock and Captain Robert Cochran, are identical in name and rank with those on a list handed to the Provincial Congress of New York by Ethan Allen and Seth Warner on July 4, 1775, as officers for the Green Mountain Boys, and the further fact that none of the men are recorded in any other place or with any other organization, all confirm the belief that the soldiers on its rolls herewith were a part of that historic band."

We present these rolls in full for the information they contain in regard to the service of men from New Hampshire formerly in Colonel Bedel's regiment, and as documents of general historical interest concerning a band of Revolutionary soldiers who rendered services of great value to the country in time of need, but whose history and organization have been hitherto almost completely unknown in the absence of records.

The credit for the discovery of the New Hampshire men in Major Brown's detachment, for the list of those names herewith included, and for the facts set forth in this note, is due to Hon. Ezra S. Stearns of Fitchburg, Mass., formerly Secretary of State of New Hampshire.
